

Military Retired and Annuitant Pay A-76 Study

Patricia McGriff
Military Pay Division
DFAS Headquarters
March 28, 2000

Overview

- Background
- Revised Process
- Status of Study
- Future of Retired and Annuitant Pay

Background

- DoD announced series of A-76 Studies in October 1997
- Congress advised in December 1997 that Retired and Annuitant Pay under study

Background (continued)

- Draft PWS completed October 1998
- Solicitation issued to industry January 1999
- Most Efficient Organization working group began meeting December 1998
- DRAFT government bid completed May 1999

Revised Process

- DFAS directed to take a fresh look at the A-76 process August 1999
- Independent assessment conducted on format, structure, & content of Performance Work Statement (PWS) October 1999
- Re-initiated revised process for DFAS A-76 studies January 2000

Retired and Annuity Pay Revised Process

- Develop acquisition strategy/identify project teams
- Release draft Performance Work Statement (PWS)
- Down-Select to identify eligible companies
- Release final PWS
- Evaluate and select industry best
- Compare to Government bid

Status of Study

- Revising/reviewing DRAFT PWS
- Identifying A-76 team members
- Preparing A-76 acquisition/study strategy
- Finalizing solicitation milestones
- Anticipate awarding in late 2000

Future of Retired and Annuity Pay

- Whether government or contractor
 - No decrease in quality of service
 - Cost to Services for current level of effort may decrease
 - Incremental cost for additional work
- Continued Support from Services
 - Partnership -> Improve Efficiency
 - Advice